Summer
2009-5769

Summer 2009 will emphasize artistic training and technique. We are expanding class offerings to include electives like Directing, Script Writing and Filmmaking.

Mandatory classes include:

Voice

Participants will learn how to create a beautifully tuned instrument through technique and performance coaching.

Acting

A variety of approaches will explore theatre games and exercises as well as scene study and improvisation.

Dance & Movement

Girls will stretch and grow through daily instruction with a wider range of dance styles and movement offered.

The Program will culminate in a "workshop" production of one-act plays that will be performed live.
A documentary about Kol Neshama will be filmed throughout the summer.

- Under the guidance of Artistic Director Robin Garbose, classes are taught by accomplished professionals
